Susana Mendoza for Mayor Announces Campaign Manager Nicole DeMont

CHICAGO, IL – Today, Susana Mendoza for Mayor announced the hiring of campaign manager Nicole DeMont. DeMont is an accomplished political operative who has managed races across the country, including leading Congresswoman-elect Mucarsel-Powell to a come from behind victory to defeat incumbent Congressman Carlos Curbelo in Florida’s 26th congressional district. The race was the most expensive House race of 2018, with over $35 million spent in total.

“I am thrilled that Nicole will be leading my campaign for mayor,” said Susana Mendoza. “Nicole has a proven track record of building grassroots organizations across the country, and I know she will do the same here in Chicago. With her managing this campaign, I’m confident we can rise above the status quo candidates to elect a mayor who is focused on the next generation, not just the next four years.”

“Susana Mendoza is exactly the mayor Chicago needs, and I am so excited to be joining her campaign,” said Nicole DeMont. “She is a dynamic, energetic leader who fights tirelessly for the values she believes in. I can’t wait to work side by side with her as we build a movement to elect the first Latina mayor of Chicago.”

A graduate of Stanford University, Nicole is also a veteran of both the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) independent expenditure and coordinated campaign. DeMont joined the Mucarsel-Powell campaign three-and-a-half months before election day, and quickly moved the race from "lean Republican" to an eventual victory. Mucarsel-Powell will be the first Latina Democrat to represent the state of Florida and the first Hispanic immigrant from South America elected to Congress.
